

Confluence-Seite erstellen

Here is how you can create a new page in TU coLAB:

Step-by-step instruction

Choose the corresponding space in Confluence, where the page should appear (and where you have authorization to do so).

1. Click "Erstellen" in the menu at the top.
2. The editor opens up, type the text into the blank page.
3. Click on "Veröffentlichen".
4. The site is now saved.
